

The News

VOL. 6. NO 25

RED DEER, ALBERTA, JULY 20th, 1910.

Subscription $1.00 per year.

HE WAS SERVED RIGHT !

He came in from the country from a long distance a few days ago to buy his haying and harvesting supplies from us, and he was served right. And YOU will be served right if you come here to have your wants filled.

We have been serving a great many people rightly for a great many years, and this is the secret of this store's success, for its success didn't "just happen"—it is the result of steady and continuous planning and effort.

If you are not a customer of this store, won't you give it a trial when you are buying your haying and harvesting supplies, just to see if we can "make good."

The Recollection of the Quality remains long after the Price is forgotten.

The Most Liberally Managed Hardware in the West

SMITH & GAETZ

The Hardware People!

Special Offer in 8-Day Clocks

Our Popular 8-Day

CLOCKS

has been very large, and for the benefit of those who could not get in Saturday, we are again offering this excellent Clock Bargain on Saturday.

8-Day Oak or Walnut Clocks—strike the hour and half-hour—

$3.75

H. H. HUMMER WATCHMAKER & JEWELLER. ISSUER OF MARRIAGE LICENSES.

INDEX CANDY

Did you ever stop to think how often you are judged by the things you do? Many people realize this fact. That's why they always buy

Huyler's Quality Candy

They regard it as an index showing their appreciation of good things and a compliment to their friends.

Parker's Drug Store

sells such quality candy that if you are seen coming from there it is an index that you appreciate the best there is to be had.

PARKER'S

Drugs. (Successor to Grieve & Co.) Stationery.

THE ALBERTA CENTRAL RAILWAY. FIRST SOD TURNED MONDAY.

SPLENDID CROPS.

In Red Deer District.

ABUNDANCE OF RAIN.

Almost perfect conditions have resulted in the promise to the farmers of the Red Deer district of one of the best crops in the history of the province.

There has been plenty of rain, and plenty of heat and everything points to a bumper harvest at high prices this year.

Fall wheat looks exceptionally well and is now filling out nicely and will go about 40 bushels to the acre. Spring wheat will go 25 bushels, oats will go from 40 to 60 bushels, and barley 35 to 40 bushels per acre.

The crop is now all in head and never looked better. Timothy will be a little short and upland will be a little scarce but the outlook here is as good as any part of the province.

Eckville.

The U.F.A. picnic, held last Friday, was a distinct success despite the unfavorable weather early in the day. The attendance was good and everybody seemed to be enjoying themselves. The dance which followed left nothing to be desired, the music being excellent. The thanks of the association are due to the ladies, who kindly took charge of the refreshments, and also to the musicians, Messrs. Kingsep and Kinna. A very pleasing feature of the day was the number of visitors from all points, especially from the west. Following is a list of the different events: Boys' race under twelve: 1st Carl Koot, 2nd Aug. Murro; bigger boys' race: 1st George Ignatius, 2nd Harold Rabbits; boys' race under fifteen: 1st Waino Ignatius; obstacle race: Richard Turkman; three-legged race: 1st M. Ensign and D. Lowe, 2nd R. Turkman and M. Tolson; ladies' egg race: 1st Mrs. Wannix; long jump: M. Hughes, 16 feet, 6 inches; high jump: M. Ensign, 4 feet, 10 inches; tug of war, married men vs. single, single men winning; pony race: J. Kuit; horse race: S. Shepherd. The football match resulted in a victory for Eckville, after a very good game on both sides. Score, 1 goal to nil.

Mr. G. M. Willan, travelling representative for the Prudential Life Insurance Co., with headquarters here, left for Winnipeg last Wednesday night to attend the annual convention. He expects to be away about two weeks.

The first sod of the Alberta Central Railway was turned on Monday last by Chief Engineer McGregor and his efficient staff, and in a few hours the work was in full swing with a number of teams and staff of men. The number is being added to daily there being about forty teams at work to-day.

Work started on section six on Mr. Fitch's farm and is being pushed in brushing the right of way both ways and in work on the grade.

It is too early to predict with certainty the amount of work to be done but the line will be completed to the Red Deer river it is confidently expected with the view of getting material to the large bridge to be built across the river this winter. It is also hoped the line will be pushed to the river on the east for the same reason but nothing definite has been decided as yet.

ALL OBJECTIONS WITHDRAWN.

A special meeting of the Town Council was held last night, when Mr. McGregor addressed the Council and explained plans of station and yards.

The Commissioners brought in the following report:

We visited the Sney's Railway Commission and received the reply submitted herewith. In view of his reply we recommend that the following lettergram be sent to the Board:

"In view of your reply to my lettergram of 15th inst., stating that matters referred to therein may be taken up later with your Board, the Town withdraws all objections to location of Alberta Central Railway line and station. Kindly approve original plans of Company immediately and notify them so construction can proceed without delay."

The report was carried unanimously and the secretary instructed to send lettergrams to the Railway Commission and J. T. Moore, president of the Company, at once notifying them of the fact. The Council then adjourned.

Tempest in a Tea Pot.

The Advocate last week caused quite a sensation by insinuating that the Alberta Central Railway Construction was held up by the town. That, at least, was the construction put on the article in question by a number of the citizens of Red Deer, and some hot discussions have taken place over the question. As a matter of fact, the town has always been most anxious to serve the company, and are still anxious to facilitate in every way possible the construction of the road. To obtain accurate information, we interviewed the secretary-treasurer of the town, who showed us all correspondence on the question.

On March 8th the town received copy of route map of line west from Red Deer.

On March 14th the secretary wrote approving of route map.

On April 23rd received copy of route map for eastern line to Sounding Creek.

On April 25th the secretary wrote the following letter to J. T. Moore:

Red Deer, April 25, 1910.
J. T. Moore, Esq.
Pres. Alberta Central Ry.
Toronto.

Dear Sir: I am directed to acknowledge receipt of your favor of the 19th inst. enclosing copy of route map, Red Deer easterly to Sounding Creek, and to inform you that the Town of Red Deer wishes to have a guarantee that a station will be built within the town limits, or if that is impossible from an engineering standpoint, the passenger trains will be run to a station within the town limits.

Yours truly,
A. T. Stephenson, Secretary.

On the same day the secretary received a letter from Railway Commission that the company had not asked for approval of their station, and that when they did so the town would be given a chance to be heard.

On April 27th the secretary wired approving of the route.

The first week in May the secretary received the following letter from Mr. Moore:

Toronto, May 2, 1910.
A. T. Stephenson,
Sec.-Treas., Red Deer, Alta.

Dear Sir:

Re. station—Yours of 25th ult. is to hand and placed on file. We shall be prepared to consider any proposal for mutual convenience and benefit in this connection when the proper time arrives. This, however, is some distance.

Yours truly,
Jno. T. Moore, President.

No further correspondence was sent or received till the recent communication re. sitings of Railway Commission at Edmonton in September was received, when they stated the matter would be considered by them unless an agreement was come to with the Company in the meantime.

The only resolution brought before the Council was passed Thursday night last, bearing on the question, and the editor of the Advocate voted for it.

The resolution is in substance a commendable effort on the part of the Council to meet the Alberta Central people at once and settle all difficulties without waiting for the Railway Commission to decide the question.

FRANK MOTT,

The Reliable Auctioneer & Real Estate Agent
GAETZ AVE. NORTH.

Just Ready for the First Comer

Here's a Snap! A House and 2 Lots, close in; if sold at once, $800 Cash. Good level lots, and worth $700 of the money.

A House and Five Acres on Fairview Park for $1,200; half cash, balance to suit.

Over 42 acres at Sylvan Lake, with nearly half mile lake frontage, easily sub-divided, and lots of money made out of it. $1,000; half cash.

Good Lots in Town at rock bottom prices, also House property.

I have also for sale a well made, convenient Caboose, which will fit any ordinary farm wagon not too high on the wheels, just the thing for the Lake, or for touring, or would suit a farmer for haying.

Also a good Democrat, with two seats, in good repair.

I have ONE only McCormick Disc, new, regular selling price $43.00, I can sell for $37.00.

BRASS AND IRON BEDS

Bed like cut for $8.50

25 DIFFERENT DESIGN TO CHOOSE FROM.

Our stock of Brass and Iron Beds was never better than to-day, both in Quality, Quantity, and Price. All sizes in stock. Prices range from $4.50 to $75.00.

Bed Springs, all sizes, from $3.50 to 6.50 each Mattresses, in all sizes, from 2.50 to 15.00, at

BEST BROTHERS,

MAKERS OF HAPPY HOMES,
Mann St. (Opp Court House), RED DEER, ALTA

SYLVAN LAKE PARK

This charmingly situated property at Sylvan Lake has been placed in our hands for sale. The property is located at the upper end of the lake, convenient to stores, post office, and telephone and besides proximity to these conveniences, The property possesses all the charms of quiet sylvan beauty and seclusion.

Sylvan Lake is one of the gems of Alberta. Its beautifully wooded shores, peerless beach and excellent boating and fishing advantages will in the near future make it one of the most popular resorts in the west.

BUY A LOT NOW AT FIRST PRICE AND EASY TERMS

Every lot in Sylvan Lake Park is high and dry, commanding a view of the lake and practically all are wooded.

Map of property can be seen and prices and terms had at our office.

Intending purchasers will be driven to Lake in automobile.

MICHENER, CARSCALLEN, AND COMPANY

Real Estate and Financial Broker

WEDNESDAY, JULY 20th, 1910.

ROMAN DECLARATIONS.

F. D. asks for more space to air his views on the Bishops' oath. He asked for authority re. the oath and we gave it. He now viciously attacks that authority, and nothing seems to satisfy him. He conveniently overlooks the name of S. H. Blake, one of the cleverest Liberal lawyers in Canada. Vulgar abuse does not count for much and our columns are too crowded to allow of much space along these lines. It is stated there is one form of oath for French speaking bishops in Quebec and another for English in the West. There is a Jesuit oath and numerous forms of oaths, some of them never having been printed. Only a short time ago the London Graphic, the most important illustrated weekly in the British Empire, devoted a page to the King's accession oath. In a border it places the Protestant declaration beside the Roman Catholic declaration. This course is taken by the Bull Connae Domini, section 1, which until recent years was publicly read on Maundy Thursday in Rome. It is a part of the canon law of the church. It reads as follows:

ROMAN CATHOLIC DECLARATION

"We excommunicate and curse, on the part of God Almighty, Father, Son and Holy Ghost: by the authority also of the blessed Apostles, Peter and Paul; and by our own, all Hussites, Wickliphists, Lutherans, Zwinglians, Calvinists, Huguenots, Anabaptists, Trinitarians, and apostates whatsoever from the Christian Faith (i.e., the Roman Faith), and all and other singular heretics, under whatsoever name they may be classed, and of whatsoever sect they may be; and those who believe, receive or favor them; and all those who defend them in general; also Schismatics, and those who pertinaciously withdraw themselves or secede from their obedience to us, and to the Roman Pontiff for the time being."

F. D. tragically remarks "false" ly accused persons have always been conceded a right to self-defence." We will agree with him if he will add in the Protestant British Empire. Freedom of speech and action is our privilege. We cannot say the same of Italy and Spain, Roman Catholic countries. In Italy only a few days ago a mob pelted and cursed a group of Baptist missionaries and blamed them for the earthquake. The state had to protect them at the point of the bayonet. In Spain civil war is threatened because the state is determined to allow Protestants to hold public worship unmolested, and there are others.

We started this controversy by stating it would be as well for Roman Catholics to change some of their own oaths before asking that the accession oath be changed. It's a poor rule that won't work both ways.

The Calgary Albertan, speaking of the Manitoba elections last week, said:

"In no place in Canada is the machine element so apparent as in the province of Manitoba. Managed by Mr. Roblin and driven by Mr. Rogers and Mr. Campbell, it passes over everything and there is nothing that can stop it. It is soulless, conscienceless, crude, rough and wealthy. It corrupts all it touches. It has placed its ruthless hand upon every department of administration, and nothing is sacred to it."

And yet the intelligent electors of Manitoba returned these very wicked Tories to power again by a majority of two to one.

How awfully low down in the social scale must the Liberal party have fallen when the people turn them down with such a dull thud for such barbarians.

Pioneers of the West.

HON. JOHN NORQUAY.

Under the heading of "Pioneers of Winnipeg and the West," the Winnipeg Tribune has the following article on the life of the late Hon. John Norquay, father of our respected citizen John

Norquay, of the C.P.R. staff:

It is now close upon twenty years since that splendid old type of native manhood, John Norquay, who for so long a period occupied the position of prime minister of Manitoba, fell a victim to that horrible modern complaint—appendicitis—and after suffering mortal agony for a day or two, surrendered his life, at an age beneath fifty when his thousands of friends and admirers (he had no enemies) looked forward to a long career of usefulness to the state, for he was especially adapted to public life. The deceased statesman was seized with the fell disease at a time when little was known about it, and when the removal of the apparently useless and troublesome appendix by operation was hardly thought of. Everything possible was done to alleviate the sufferings of the statesman, the cause of which was only discovered by an autopsy after his decease.

John Norquay was the second son of John Norquay, a native of Red River colony who was descended from a Scottish family. Born in 1841, he was sent as a boy to Old St. John's Boys' college, where he studied under Bishop Anderson, and where he won a scholarship in 1854, when he was but thirteen years old. He married Elizabeth Setter, sister of Sheriff Setter, and she and a large family of fine boys and girls, all well known in Winnipeg, survive him. His first entered public life in 1871, taking the portfolio of public works in the Davis government. He continued in office, occupying various portfolios in different administrations till 1878, when he was himself called on to form a government, which he did, practically remaining at the head of the administration with but a brief interregnum until the accession of Greenway in 1893. Mr. Norquay called himself Conservative, but he was a very liberal-minded man, quite free from any cheap partisanship and always ready to ally himself with any men in the public life of the province with whom he felt that he could honorably co-operate in the administration of public affairs. He was a patriotic man, a fine speaker, and had a reputation for integrity and square dealing that earned for him the sobriquet "Honest John Norquay." He was a man of fine presence, possessing a great, powerful frame, a strong, intelligent, earnest face, and one of the kindest and most amiable dispositions of any of the old-timers of the province. Illustrative of the good nature and kindly humor which always dominated him was the fact that he was on the best of personal terms with his "hon friend," Mr. Greenway, whom he always called "Tom," and when in the fortunes of political warfare he finally surrendered office to "Tom," he left a bundle of poker chips on the premier's desk, which he had just cleaned out for his successor, with the inscription:

"A legacy to the new premier, with best wishes."

It was always a marvel to the easterners who poured into Manitoba in the eighties and possessed the land, that wonderful grasp that Mr. Norquay, with his limited opportunities in this isolated region prior to the advent of the railway and other civilizing factors, possessed of public questions, the fine ideals which filled his heart and the devotion which he always displayed towards the Dominion and the Empire. It was an inspiring experience to listen to this great giant delivering one of his addresses, in which with face lighted up with patriotic fire and intelligence, he would trace the history of the Empire from its inception and then lead on to the birth of the Dominion, analyzing its constitutional privileges and rights. It was ever his practice to hold up to the minds of his listeners ideals and practices, which, if preached to-day, so degenerate have the people become in their political ideals, would quite overwhelm them and so shock the organs that it is doubtful if they would publish the sentiments.

It was Mr. Norquay's misfortune, during almost his entire administration, to be surrounded by about as poor a bunch of hangers-on as ever cursed a weak British monarch. These men did him infinite harm, for the premier was too kind-hearted a man to resist their importunities and pleadings. In this way he was led into trifling sine of omission or commission, which, while they never marred the splendid personal reputation that he left behind, caused him infinite annoyance and gave opponents opportunity for harassing criticism.

As a friend it would be difficult to find a more self-denying and faithful one than John Norquay. He loved fellowship and company and friends. There was a great, bubbling, kindly side to his nature that could not be repressed and when one considers his lack

(continued on page 5.)

Children's Dresses
and Aprons
At Half Price.

DON'T MISS THE BEST OPPORTUNITY

WHITEWEAR at HALF PRICE
at Hall's.

Ever given in Red Deer to procure Whitewear at a fraction of the regular value. We have about $200 worth left yet to choose from out of the $500 purchase, and it's going at just half the regular price.

There are, in the lot, Children's Dresses and Pinafores, Ladies' Aprons, Waists, Underskirts, Drawers, Nightgowns and Corset Covers. If you don't come and get your share of these Special Values you'll be disappointed.

MUSLINS, 5c. YD.

A lucky purchase of 500 yards of Muslin enables us to do you a regular 10c. line,

While it lasts, at the Special Price—5c. Yd.

NEW DRESSGOODS.

A Special Line of the new weave of Dress Goods came to hand last week for our Fall trade. We show in this range all the wanted shades.

The line is Special Value at 75c. Yd.

SHOES, 20 PER CENT. OFF.

Don't Forget we can save you money on Shoes. Our trade in this department is continually growing, and many are beginning to appreciate the special values we give. We have a big shipment of new lines for Fall now on the way, which will arrive in about two weeks.

MEN'S SUITS, $15.00.

For the next two weeks we will give you your choice of any Suit in our stock for $15.00. The values run from $18.00 to $20.00. Drop in and look them over.

SUMMER UNDERWEAR.

Knitted goods have been a little scarce, but we were fortunate in receiving a good shipment of Vests and Drawers recently, and can give you excellent values.

Vests run from 2 for 25c. up to 75c., and Drawers 35c. Pair.

SMALLWARE DEPARTMENT.

Don't forget this department in the gallery of our store. You'll find many lines just the things you need for this season of the year, and the prices are just about half what you are used to paying for similar lines.

Vaseline, 5c.; Talcum Powder, 10c.; Envelopes, 5c.; Writing Pads, 5c.; Lead Pencils, 6 for 5c.; Shoe Blacking, 5c. box; and many other lines at similar low prices.

A great deal better for a good deal less is what people look for at our store, and that is exactly what we aim to give them.

C. E. HALL,

Red Deer's
Cash Store.

RED TICKET
SPECIALS
THIS WEEK.

The W. E. LORD Co'y

IS TOO BUSY
TO WRITE
PARTICULARS AND PRICES.

Since We Must Eat to Live, Let's Have the Best

The Strawberries we are selling are beauties and are being snapped up quick.

Pine Apples, Cherries, Tomatoes, Grape Fruit, Bananas, Oranges, Lemons, Rhubarb, Etc., all in stock this week.

Ice Cream Every Day.

2,500 Club Special Cigars Just Opened Up; also 1,000 Biscuits, and many others of the popular brands.

D.C. HORN

Don't you worry about "breaking in" those new shoes. Buy a big sprinkle top canister of and forget your feet. It overcomes friction, prevents corns and blisters. Since it's Nylas we know it's good. Price 25c.

Nylas EAS'EM

Anything you buy with the name Nylas will give you satisfaction.

Sold and guaranteed by The Gazette-Cornett-Drug & Book Co. Ltd. and Parker's, Drugs and Stationery.

New Central Creamery.

The undersigned is now establishing a Central Creamery in the City of Calgary, and shall be ready to receive shipments of cream by May 16th.

Write for full particulars.

NOTE THIS, HOWEVER!

1. Highest Price paid for butterfat; full statement with each returned can.
2. Price quoted two weeks in advance.
3. Premium of 2 cents. per pound butterfat, in all cream grading No. 1.
4. Shipments of cream will be received by any train except Sunday.
5. Payment in full by Express Money Order, promptly for each and every shipment.

P. PALLESEN, CALGARY

P. O. BOX 2074.

THE MERCHANTS BANK OF CANADA

Capital Paid up $ 6,000,000
Reserve Fund $ 4,500,000
Total Deposits, over $1,237,873
Total Assets, over $6,998,825

SIR H. MONTAGU ALLAN, President. E. F. HEDDEN, General Manager.

145 Branches in Canada.
Accounts of Farmers, Firms and Individuals solicited.

SAVINGS DEPARTMENT.

Deposits received of $1.00 and upwards and interest allowed at highest current rate.

R. R. RANDALL, Mgr. RED DEER BRANCH.

IMPERIAL BANK OF CANADA

Capital Authorized $10,000,000.00
Capital Subscribed $ 5,575,000.00
Capital paid up $ 5,330,000.00
Reserve Fund $ 350,000.00

HEAD OFFICE: - TORONTO.

Branches throughout the Dominion of Canada.

Drafts and Travellers' Letters of Credit issued available in all parts of the world.

SAVINGS DEPARTMENT.

Deposits received of $1.00 and upwards and interest allowed from date of deposit.

FARMERS' NOTES DISCOUNTED.

Red Deer Branch J. C. GILLESPIE, MANAGER.

WOODLANDS!

The Best Buy Near Town.

Blocks from 1 to 5 acres high bench land. Rich, deep, black loam; groves of trees; stretches of meadow. A rare chance for home makers; all the health and freedom of the country, all the privileges and advantages of the town. For the investor, this offers an exceptional chance. Red Deer is building to the north, and it is the question of only a little time when the large lots will be subdivided into building lots. Ten to fifteen minutes walk from heart of town. Inspection invited, Guide provided.

Prices from $80 to $110 per acre.

Terms 1/3 down, 1/3 in 12 & 24 months. Interest 8 per cent.

Mrs. A. R. Stent and Fred L. Ray, Props.
Greene & Payne, Trustees.

The following accounts were passed:
Wage sheet for June $303.40; Western Gen. Elect. Co. $28.29; Western Gen. Elect. Co., $350.00; Reg. Weldon

TOWN COUNCIL.

The regular meeting of the Town Council was held on Thursday evening last, Mayor McKee in the chair, and Councillors Gaetz, Welliver, Carscadden and Galbraith in attendance.

CORRESPONDENCE

A firm had filed a scheme before the Council whereby the Council could secure the location of the railway for one mile east and one mile west of Red Deer until the town is heard from, and that the Council would meet in Edmonton on Sept. 9.

C. K. Wright asked for walk to the premises in rear of Imperial Bank. Will be attended to.

The Railway Commission notified the Town that they withheld approval of Alberta Central railway for one mile east and one mile west of Red Deer until the town is heard from, and that the Council would meet in Edmonton on Sept. 9.

Councillor Gaetz introduced a motion, seconded by Councillor Galbraith, out of courtesy, that the Alberta Central railway be given a free hand and all objection to the location of the station or route be withdrawn by the Town.

Councillor Welliver said he had not yet seen the location, and did not know if it would be wise to pass such a motion.

Councillor Gaetz said the Commission had had shown the location of the station south of town, and he felt we had all the information necessary to warrant us in now withdrawing any opposition to the company in any way whatever. It would be only through a fault of our own that we should have to withdraw our opposition to the company, and we should, after having the plans laid before us, without any opposition whatever to the railway.

The mayor said we had no guarantee that the company would not drop their passengers a mile from town on the hill, instead of running the passenger train into the C.P.R. station as they should.

While Councillor Carscadden did not wish to throw any obstacle in the way of the Alberta Central railway, he would certainly like more light on the question. He did not feel like voting for the motion.

Councillor Welliver moved in amendment, seconded by Councillor Carscadden, that in view of the notice sent by the railway commission, that the Alberta Central railway be given a free hand and all objection to the location of the station or route be withdrawn by the Town.

Councillor Gaetz introduced an amendment to the amendment, that the Council meet Tuesday night, but withdrew it, owing to the council thinking it unwise to set any definite night until the railway authorities had been interviewed.

The motion then passed unanimously.

The mayor conveyed the thanks of Dr. Clark and the Liberal association to the Council for the kindly way the Council had acted in assisting in the reception to Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

COMMISSIONER'S REPORT
The committee in charge of the arrangements for the civic reception of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Councillors Gaetz and Carscadden, who were appointed by the Mayor, report that they purpose having an arch erected on Ross Avenue and a platform and seats built on the Town Square, and that the cost will not be over $200. We recommend that this expenditure be authorized. We will endeavor to have the cement sidewalks completed on Ross Ave. before the demonstration, and will have the old pipe, etc., removed from the Town Square, and the weeds on the streets cut.

The contract with the sidewalk contractors has been prepared, and work commenced on the concrete walkways. We have taken up the Minister of Public Works, Ottawa, the question of having the Dominion Government pay their share of the cost of the walk in front of the Land office property, and if they will pay it, we will be able to have the walk continued to Mackenzie Avenue. We also recommend that the sidewalks be continued to the name of the streets, using Ross St. and Gaetz Ave. as bases to number from, and maintaining these names.

On the recommendation of the Fire Chief we have ordered from the Winnipeg Rubber Co. 400 feet of Paragon Fire hose at $1.10 per foot to take the pump can be set up without delay.

Last week we noticed in the Edmonton papers that two experts sent out by the Dominion Government to examine and report on clay and shale deposits of Canada were in Edmonton for a few days and were going on to Calgary and the coast. We at once wired them to try and arrange to stop over at Red Deer, and last Friday they were here. Councillor Gaetz and Mr. R. G. Broughton kindly placed their autos at our disposal and accompanied the party, visiting different clay and shale deposits near town. Samples were taken and will be tested at Ottawa next winter and full reports made.

A. Taylor, treasurer, broke a small bone above the ankle last Saturday. As he will likely be laid up for a time we will have to get out of town to take his place temporarily.

We have notified Wu Kee, laundryman, and Jim Mikado, restaurant keeper, to have their premises connected with the sewers within 30 days. If this is not done we will have them prosecuted for depositing slop water on the ground.

We recommend that a rebate of $1.75 be allowed the Alberta Central Railway Co. for the rates charged when service was frozen up.

By-laws to license and regulate bill posters to signs the $50.00 to be purchased and improve park, to hold an election for Councillor, to grant a discount of taxes and to levy a water frontage tax would be before the Council.

Report was adopted.

ACCOMPLISHED.

Wage sheet for June $303.40; Western Gen. Elect. Co. $28.29; Western Gen. Elect. Co., $350.00; Reg. Weldon

9.70; P. H. Tallman 11.88; Winnipeg Rubber Co. $5. H. G. Stone 2.07; Douglas Co., Ltd. 60.00; Smith & Gaetz 13.00; Reid & Ford 3.00; Red Deer Electric Co. $2.29; B. W. Wilson Sons 85; G. Stephenson 48.80; A. McPherson 15.00; H. Meers 20.00; The Postmaster (stamps) 15.00; P. Clark 12.00; Herald Publishing Co. 3.02; Alberta Pac. Elev. Co. 1.20; Edmonton Concrete Co. 45.00; Gaetz-Cornett Co. 1.31; John Galt Engineering Co. 15.00; Gaetz & Gaetz 1.50; Cushing Bros. 9.77; Stearns Laundry 1.19; Broughton 6.00; Great West Lumber Co. 97.80; Caledonia Iron Works 172.50; Edmonton Concrete Co. 82.25.

The by-law regulating bill posting passed, the annual fee for license being placed at $10 per annum.

The by-law to fill the vacancy on the Council, caused by the resignation of Councillor H. B. Hill, was passed, nominations to be held on the 8th day of August in the Council chamber.

A by-law to raise the sum of $9,000 for the purchase of a park passed its several readings, and a vote of the Council was taken on the 10th day of August.

The by-law, to grant a discount of taxes, and to levy a water frontage tax, passed.

The Council then adjourned.

In Memory

of Captain Cottingham's dog "Grouse", who died on Saturday, June 15, 1910.

By L.G.G., Stettler, Alta., June 22, '10.
He's gone. He's dead. Red Deer will mourn.

The finest dog, that ever was born. The Captain lost his head when he was in sorrow, for his faithful friend.

Grouse was his friend, so faithful true. Both good, and had luck, saw him through.

The Captain lost him, like a brother. Ye never saw any one, without the other.

The muckle clumsy, towsie type. I'm sure there never was his like.

For me Retriever, Pointer, Setter. Could do a thing, he couldn't better.

New wounded duck was ever found. To pine, and die, when Grouse was found.

New bird that ever cleft the air. When hit, escaped, if Grouse was there.

Nae mortal thing, wi' wings the fly. Could ever escape his eagle eye.

The birds in Heaven all got a fright. When Grouse arrived, the other night.

PIONEERS OF THE WEST.

(continued from page 1)
of early opportunity, his warmth of heart and his yielding disposition, and recalls the crowd that he often had to deal with, and to resist, it is difficult to set proper bounds to one's admiration. It is almost a miracle, under the circumstances, that Mr. Norquay was able to leave behind him such an unspotted reputation, as a benediction alike to his family and to his beloved province.

It is not some within the compass of such a sketch as this to tell how Mr. Norquay was betrayed by "friends" at Ottawa in the concession of decent terms, which were promptly conceded to his opponents, a circumstance which almost destroyed Mr. Norquay. Nor is it within the scope to trace his political career and to speculate upon what might have been his future had he lived.

All that is intended is to present a brief picture of the man, and when it is recorded that with his demise one of the kindest, most patriotic and most honorable souls that ever participated in the life of this province and city was obliterated, the task is accomplished.

With the old settlers who knew him so well and who were always accounted to be called by their Christian name, the great, burly, kindly, hearty figure, as he drove about the settlement and up and down the river road between here and Selkirk and entered the homes with a hearty greeting, will not fade while breath lasts. John Norquay was beloved by all who had the privilege of his acquaintance.

It is fitting that his body should repose in the peaceful cemetery of St. John's where he received education, beneath a huge granite pillar erected by the dollar subscriptions of his fellow countrymen.

7am Buk

Is the best remedy known for sunburn, heat, rash, eczema, sore feet, stings and blisters. A skin food!

No Disordered Kidneys or a Weak Bladder if You Take a Few Doses of

FIG PILLS

All Backache and Distress from out-of-order Kidneys or Bladder Trouble will vanish, and you will feel fine. Lame Back, Painful Stitches, Rheumatism, Nervous headache, Dizziness, Sleeplessness, Weakness, Sick Feeling and other symptoms of Stagnant, Inactive Kidneys and Liver disappear. Urinating frequent Urination and all Bladder Trouble ends. FIG PILLS go at once to the disordered Kidneys, Bladder and Urinary System, and complete a cure before you know it. There is no other remedy, at any price, which will affect so thoroughly and promptly a cure as a 25 cent box of FIG PILLS. Only curative results can come from taking FIG PILLS, and a few doses mean clean, active, healthy Kidneys, Bladder and Liver—and no Backache.

For sale at all first class drug stores. 25c a box, or five for one dollar. Parker's, drugs and stationery, special agents.

PROFESSIONAL

DENTISTRY.
Dr. Plaxton, Dentist.
Northwestern University, Chicago Royal College of Dental Surgeons, Toronto.
Special attention given to all branches of Modern Dentistry.
Office in Smith & Gaetz Block, Red Deer. Phone 112.

LEGAL.
Greene & Payne
Barristers, Solicitors, Adversors, Notaries.
Geo. W. Greene, W. E. Payne.
Money to loan on town and farm property. Office over the Canadian Bank of Commerce.

J. L. Crawford, B.A.,
Barrister, Adversor, Notary Public.
Money to Loan on Farm or Town Property.
Office: Post Office Block.

Agent for Sun Insurance Co., founded 1710, and Northern Insurance Co. of Eng., founded 1680.

Moore & Durie,
J. CARLTON MOORE, COUNSELLOR L. DUBIE, B.A., B.A., J.D. Crown Prosecutor.
Barristers Solicitors Notaries
Money to Loan.
Office—Smith & Gaetz Block. Phone 145.

J. Wallace,
Justice of the Peace.
Conveyancing. Money to Loan. Fire and Life Insurance. Steamship Agency.
Mortgages Solicited.
Office—Boutwell & Co., Real Estate.

CHARTERED ACCOUNTANT.
A. W. G. Allen,
Accountant & Auditor.
Office—Room 25, Smith & Gaetz Block, Red Deer.

MUSIC.
Miss Ceba Michener,
Graduate in Music.
Prepares pupils for the Toronto Conservatory Exams. in Piano and Theory.
Studio: Love Block, Room 8.

Miss Ada Philpott,
DRAMATIC ELUCUTIONIST.
Open to engagements for Recitals, Concerts, Spring classes forming now. Terms moderate. For particulars apply to Miss Ada Philpott, care Canadian Bank of Commerce, Old, Alta.

ARCHITECT
C. A. Julian Sharman, R.A.A.,
ARCHITECT.
RED DEER ALBERTA.

MARRIAGE LICENCES.
H. H. Humber,
Red Deer, Alberta.
Watchmaker, Jeweller and Optician.
Issuer of Marriage Licenses.

H. J. Snell,
Red Deer, Alberta.
Watchmaker, Jeweller and Optician.
Issuer of Marriage Licenses.

AUCTIONEERS
Frank Mott,
Auctioneer, Valuer, &c.
My Motto—Honest Dealing and Good Service.
Reference—Bank of Commerce.

Dick Bleny,
Auctioneer. Farms.
Real Estate, Insurance—Justice of the Peace.
Money to Loan—Official Auditor.
Improved Farms for sale.

G. N. Welsh,
12 years' experience as Auctioneer in Chicago Stock Yards.
All kinds of sales in or out of town attended to promptly.
Reference—Merchants Bank, Red Deer.
Promt Business and Square Dealing my motto.
Excellence Post Office.

PIANO TUNING.
Donald Thatcher.
Pianos and Organs. Tuning and Repairing a Specialty. Best of References.
Box 614, Red Deer.

F. A. McEwan,
Veterinary Surgeon.
Honorary Graduate of Ontario Veterinary College.
Office: Arlington Hotel.

LOST

From Reid Brothers' ranch, Section 22, Township 40, Range 4, west of 30th, Louisville Post Office, one sorrel, four year old stallion, unbranded. Has face marked with white. Information leading to his recovery will be properly rewarded.
JOHN W. REID.
July 12.

WASKASOO EXPRESS.

General Transfer and TOWN DELIVERY.
Rig Mails All Trains.
Trunks brought and taken from depot.
ICE-Pun, Clean delivered daily in quantities to suit buyer.

J. WOOD, PROP.
PHONE 67.

SMITH BROTHERS,

Gaetz Valley, Alta.
We have 20 pairs of good mixed Horses for sale.
A good stock now on hand.

P. E. Kent & Co.

GENERAL CONTRACTORS.
PAINTING CARPENTRY ETC., ETC.
Address: Opposite Cushing Bros. Gaetz Ave. North, Red Deer.

BOTSFORD & Co.

Real Estate Loans Insurance
ROSS AVENUE - RED DEER

RED DEER IRON WORKS.

Morrison Street, - Telephone 169.
Shaft turning, Wheelbarrow and Pipes screw cut to any size and number of threads by machinery.
Repairs to all kinds of machinery promptly executed. The works are fitted throughout by most modern new machinery driven by Electric Motor.

J. W. BROUGHTON,

Engineer, Millwright, Machinist

THE NEXT BIG EVENT

THE EDMONTON EXHIBITION

AUGUST 23, 24, 25, 26.

$187,000.00

One hundred and eighty-seven thousand dollars are being spent on new grounds and buildings.
$70,000 spent on Stock Buildings alone.
$30,000 offered in Prizes and Purse.
$25,000 spent on new Grand Stand.
147 acres of land acquired for Exhibition purposes.
The Greatest Stock Show and Race Meet west of the Great Lakes.
FUN FOR EVERYBODY.
Horse Racing, Circus, Animal Show, Fireworks Sideshows.
Excursion Rates from all points. See the Capital City and the great mixed farming portion of Alberta.
Write for Prize List to-day.

A. B. Campbell, L. E. W. Irving, A. G. Harrison,
President. Vice-Pres. Mgr.-Sec'y.

RED DEER Steam Laundry.

The BLACK BAG

By Louis Joseph Vance

Copyright, 1928, by the Bala-Hamill Co.

(Continued.)

Accepting the revolver with his left hand and setting his finger on the trigger, Kirkwood, became with pure enjoyment. He found the deference of the older man, tempered though it was by his formidable manner, refreshing in the extreme.

"A little appreciation isn't exactly out of place, come to think of it," he commented, adding, "but you are the captain, 'Stryker,' you bold, but buttery, have you got a gun concealed about your neckless person?"

The captain shook his head with contradiction. "No, Mr. Kirkwood," he managed to reply in a voice singularly lacking in his wonted bluster.

"No, Mr. Kirkwood, sir," amended Stryker eagerly.

"Now, come round here and let's have a look at this. Please stay where you are, Calendar. Why, captain, you are shivering from head to foot! Not ill are you, wag? Step over to the table there, Stryker, and turn out your pockets; turn 'em inside out and let's see what you carry in the way of offensive artillery. If the Stryker doesn't rain down anything you'll be sorry for afterward."

"No fear of that," mumbled the captain, nervously shuffling toward the table and, in his anxiety to give no cause for unpleasantness, beginning to empty his pockets on the way.

"Don't forget the Stryker, and, Stryker, if you happen to think of any more in the line of one of your merry quips or jests, don't strain yourself holding in. Get it right off your chest and you'll feel better."

Kirkwood, chuckling in high conceit with himself, watched Calendar out of the corner of his eye, but with his attention centered on the indefinitely diverting spectacle afforded by Stryker, whose prodigious lands were being brought violently as one by one they were brought to light the articles of which he had despoiled his erstwhile victim.

"Come, come, Stryker! Surely you can think of something witty. Surely you haven't exhausted the possibilities of that almanac joke! Couldn't you bring another variation on the lunatic where? Don't hesitate out of consideration for me, captain. I'm joking! Perhaps you've noticed."

Stryker turned upon him an expression at once ludicrous, piteous and hateful. "That's all, sir," he snarled, displaying his empty palms in token of his absolute tractability.

"Good enough. Now right about face—quick! Your back's prettier than your face, and better than to know where your hip pockets are empty. I've heard it's the habit of you gentry to pack guns in your clothes. None? There's all right, but the Stryker is in the transom over there in the corner. Stryker, and don't move. Don't let me hear a word from you. Understand."

Submissively the captain retired to the indicated spot. Kirkwood turned to Calendar, of whose attitude, however, he had not been for an instant unmindful.

"Won't you sit down, Mr. Calendar?" he suggested pleasantly. "Forgive me for keeping you waiting, but the Stryker dropped passively into his chair. Kirkwood stepped over Mulready and advanced to the middle of the cabin, at the same time thrusting Calendar's revolver into his own coat pocket.

The quiet, grim smile played about the American's face, a smile a little contemptuous, more than a little inscrutable. In its light Calendar grew restive and lost something of his assurance. His feet shifted uneasily beneath the table, and his dark eyes wavered, evading Kirkwood's. At length he seemed to find the suspense endurable.

"Well," he demanded testily, "what do you want of me?"

"I was just wondering at you, Calendar. In the last few days you've given me enough cause to wonder, as you'll admit."

The adventurer picked up spirit, deluded by Kirkwood's pacific tone. "I wonder at you, Mr. Kirkwood," he retorted. "It was good of you to save my life, and—"

"I'm not sure of that! Perhaps it had been more humane."

Calendar owned the touch with a wry grimace. "But I'm hanged if I understand this high handed attitude of yours!" he concluded heatedly.

"Don't you?" Kirkwood's humor became less apparent, the smile sobering. "You will," he told the man, adding abruptly, "Calendar, where's your daughter?"

The restless eyes sought the companion's.

"Dorothy," the man lied spontaneously, without a tremor, "is with friends in England. Why? Did you want to see her?"

"Well, I thought it best to leave her home, after all."

"I'm glad to hear she's safe," said Kirkwood, commented Kirkwood.

The adventurer's glance analyzed his face. "Ah," he said slowly, "I see you followed me on Dorothy's account, Mr. Kirkwood?"

"Partly—partly on my own. Let me put it to you fairly. When you forced yourself upon me, back there in London, you offered me some sort of employment. When I rejected it, you used me to your advantage for the furtherance of your purposes, which I confess I don't understand, and I'm sure I'm sure. Naturally when I found myself penniless and friendless in a strange country, I thought again of your offer and tried to find you to accept it."

"Despite the fact that you're an honest man, Kirkwood?"

"I'm a desperate man tonight, whatever I have been yesterday," the young man's tone was both earnest and convincing. "I don't forget I'm warned you what'll happen if you try to break even with me."

"Never fear, little one," Calendar's laugh was nervous, cheerful. "The Lord knows you're welcome."

"Thank you most to death," the concluding words completely restored the frankness of the proposition. Calendar laughed openly and with a ease of irony. The episode seemed to be turning out better than he had anticipated. Gently his mouth and chin as he looked Kirkwood up and down.

"Too bad," Kirkwood's eyes narrowed. "You're too late, Kirkwood, I've made other arrangements."

"Genuinely diverted, the adventurer laughed a second time, tipping back in his chair, his frame shaking with a ponderous enjoyment. "Don't do anything you'll be sorry for," he parried, earnestly, the young man's recent admission to the contrary.

"No fear, Calendar. I'm just going to use my advantage, which you yourself dispute, and I'll describe in an eloquent circle, gleaming in the amplitude—to let you on you a little legitimate blackmail. Don't be alarmed. I shall hit you any harder than I have to."

"What?" stammered Calendar, astonished. "What are you driving at?"

"You've cost me a pretty penny, first and last, with your nasty little conspiracy, whatever it's all about. Now, needing money, you've been getting some of it back. I shouldn't precisely rob you, but this is a holdup, all right. Stryker," reproachfully, "I don't see how you can help."

"I got it," replied the sailor hastily, fumbling with his tie.

"Give me, then," Kirkwood held out his hand and received the trinket. Then, moving over to the table, the young man, while abating nothing of his watchfulness, sorted out his belongings from the mass of odds and ends Stryker had disgorged. The tale of them was complete. The captain had obeyed him faithfully. Kirkwood looked up, pleased.

"Now, see here, Calendar, this collection of trinkets that I was robbed of by your resourceful Stryker, is worth about $150. I'm going to sell it to you at a bargain—say $50, 25 francs."

"The device you are!" Calendar's eyes opened wide, partly in admiration. "You realize that this is next door to highway robbery, my young friend?"

"High seas robbery, you prefer," amended Kirkwood with entire equanimity. "I'm going to have the money, and you're going to give it to me. The transaction by any name is a robbery, no sweeter, Calendar. Come—fork over."

"And if I refuse?"

"I wouldn't refuse if I were you."

"Why not?"

"The consequences would be too painful."

"You mean you'd puncture me with that gun?"

"Not unless you attack or attempt to follow me. I mean to say, you're a Belgian police officer, aren't you? A most efficient body and that I'll make it my duty and pleasure to introduce you to you if you refuse. But I'll let you off with a warning. You'll find that I'm not a man to be trifled with."

"That will be about all. I leave you presently to your unholy devices, you and that dog over there. The captain squirmed, reddening. "Just by way of precaution, however, I'll ask you to wait in here till I'm off." Kirkwood stepped backward to the door of the captain's room, opened it and removed the key from the inside.

"He continued to stare at the man, not I'll be clear of Antwerp. Please don't think of refusing me. I really mean it."

The latter clause came sharply as Calendar seemed to hesitate, his weary, wary eyes glimmering with the thought of the man's attitude. "I wonder at you, Mr. Kirkwood," he retorted. "It was good of you to save my life, and—"

"I'm not sure of that! Perhaps it had been more humane."

Calendar owned the touch with a wry grimace. "But I'm hanged if I understand this high handed attitude of yours!" he concluded heatedly.

"Don't you?" Kirkwood's humor became less apparent, the smile sobering. "You will," he told the man, adding abruptly, "Calendar, where's your daughter?"

The restless eyes sought the companion's.

"Dorothy," the man lied spontaneously, without a tremor, "is with friends in England. Why? Did you want to see her?"

"Well, I thought it best to leave her home, after all."

"I'm glad to hear she's safe," said Kirkwood, commented Kirkwood.

The adventurer's glance analyzed his face. "Ah," he said slowly, "I see you followed me on Dorothy's account, Mr. Kirkwood?"

"Partly—partly on my own. Let me put it to you fairly. When you forced yourself upon me, back there in London, you offered me some sort of employment. When I rejected it, you used me to your advantage for the furtherance of your purposes, which I confess I don't understand, and I'm sure I'm sure. Naturally when I found myself penniless and friendless in a strange country, I thought again of your offer and tried to find you to accept it."

"Despite the fact that you're an honest man, Kirkwood?"

"Partly—partly on my own. Let me put it to you fairly. When you forced yourself upon me, back there in London, you offered me some sort of employment. When I rejected it, you used me to your advantage for the furtherance of your purposes, which I confess I don't understand, and I'm sure I'm sure. Naturally when I found myself penniless and friendless in a strange country, I thought again of your offer and tried to find you to accept it."

"Despite the fact that you're an honest man, Kirkwood?"

stuffy little stare. Kirkwood, watching and following to the threshold, inserted the key.

"One word more," he counseled, "and I'll have you by the throat. Don't forget I'm warned you what'll happen if you try to break even with me."

"Never fear, little one," Calendar's laugh was nervous, cheerful. "The Lord knows you're welcome."

"Thank you most to death," the concluding words completely restored the frankness of the proposition. Calendar laughed openly and with a ease of irony. The episode seemed to be turning out better than he had anticipated. Gently his mouth and chin as he looked Kirkwood up and down.

"Too bad," Kirkwood's eyes narrowed. "You're too late, Kirkwood, I've made other arrangements."

"Genuinely diverted, the adventurer laughed a second time, tipping back in his chair, his frame shaking with a ponderous enjoyment. "Don't do anything you'll be sorry for," he parried, earnestly, the young man's recent admission to the contrary.

"No fear, Calendar. I'm just going to use my advantage, which you yourself dispute, and I'll describe in an eloquent circle, gleaming in the amplitude—to let you on you a little legitimate blackmail. Don't be alarmed. I shall hit you any harder than I have to."

"What?" stammered Calendar, astonished. "What are you driving at?"

"You've cost me a pretty penny, first and last, with your nasty little conspiracy, whatever it's all about. Now, needing money, you've been getting some of it back. I shouldn't precisely rob you, but this is a holdup, all right. Stryker," reproachfully, "I don't see how you can help."

"I got it," replied the sailor hastily, fumbling with his tie.

"Give me, then," Kirkwood held out his hand and received the trinket. Then, moving over to the table, the young man, while abating nothing of his watchfulness, sorted out his belongings from the mass of odds and ends Stryker had disgorged. The tale of them was complete. The captain had obeyed him faithfully. Kirkwood looked up, pleased.

"Now, see here, Calendar, this collection of trinkets that I was robbed of by your resourceful Stryker, is worth about $150. I'm going to sell it to you at a bargain—say $50, 25 francs."

"The device you are!" Calendar's eyes opened wide, partly in admiration. "You realize that this is next door to highway robbery, my young friend?"

"High seas robbery, you prefer," amended Kirkwood with entire equanimity. "I'm going to have the money, and you're going to give it to me. The transaction by any name is a robbery, no sweeter, Calendar. Come—fork over."

"And if I refuse?"

"I wouldn't refuse if I were you."

"Why not?"

"The consequences would be too painful."

"You mean you'd puncture me with that gun?"

"Not unless you attack or attempt to follow me. I mean to say, you're a Belgian police officer, aren't you? A most efficient body and that I'll make it my duty and pleasure to introduce you to you if you refuse. But I'll let you off with a warning. You'll find that I'm not a man to be trifled with."

"That will be about all. I leave you presently to your unholy devices, you and that dog over there. The captain squirmed, reddening. "Just by way of precaution, however, I'll ask you to wait in here till I'm off." Kirkwood stepped backward to the door of the captain's room, opened it and removed the key from the inside.

"He continued to stare at the man, not I'll be clear of Antwerp. Please don't think of refusing me. I really mean it."

The latter clause came sharply as Calendar seemed to hesitate, his weary, wary eyes glimmering with the thought of the man's attitude. "I wonder at you, Mr. Kirkwood," he retorted. "It was good of you to save my life, and—"

"I'm not sure of that! Perhaps it had been more humane."

Calendar owned the touch with a wry grimace. "But I'm hanged if I understand this high handed attitude of yours!" he concluded heatedly.

"Don't you?" Kirkwood's humor became less apparent, the smile sobering. "You will," he told the man, adding abruptly, "Calendar, where's your daughter?"

The restless eyes sought the companion's.

"Dorothy," the man lied spontaneously, without a tremor, "is with friends in England. Why? Did you want to see her?"

"Well, I thought it best to leave her home, after all."

"I'm glad to hear she's safe," said Kirkwood, commented Kirkwood.

The adventurer's glance analyzed his face. "Ah," he said slowly, "I see you followed me on Dorothy's account, Mr. Kirkwood?"

"Partly—partly on my own. Let me put it to you fairly. When you forced yourself upon me, back there in London, you offered me some sort of employment. When I rejected it, you used me to your advantage for the furtherance of your purposes, which I confess I don't understand, and I'm sure I'm sure. Naturally when I found myself penniless and friendless in a strange country, I thought again of your offer and tried to find you to accept it."

"Despite the fact that you're an honest man, Kirkwood?"

"Partly—partly on my own. Let me put it to you fairly. When you forced yourself upon me, back there in London, you offered me some sort of employment. When I rejected it, you used me to your advantage for the furtherance of your purposes, which I confess I don't understand, and I'm sure I'm sure. Naturally when I found myself penniless and friendless in a strange country, I thought again of your offer and tried to find you to accept it."

"Despite the fact that you're an honest man, Kirkwood?"

STOMACH MISERY

BANISHED BY "FRUIT-A-LIVES"

MR. ALDICE HEBERT

Stratford, Conn., June 10, 1928.

"I have been completely cured of a frightful condition of the stomach through the wonderful fruit medicine 'Fruit-a-lives'. I could not eat anything and I suffered awful pain from indigestion."

My head ached incessantly. I was told to try 'Fruit-a-lives' and sent for six boxes. Now I am entirely well, can eat any ordinary food and never have a headache."

ALDICE HEBERT.

Box, 6 for $2.50, or trial box, 10c. At all dealers or from Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

His Task

"Did you not see what I saw when you went about?"

"No," answered Mr. Cunroo. "Mother and the girls did the sight-seeing. I had to put in my time lining the places where they cash letters of credit."

—Wasp.

Minard's Liniment Cures Diptheria.

"Bill," said Ben Johnson, one day when the two were dining at a London coffee house, "did you come to the city last week?"

"Yes," answered Bill. "I was in the city for a week, and I saw a lot of things, but I didn't see anything that I could tell you about."

"I saw a lot of things, but I didn't see anything that I could tell you about."

—Chicago Tribune.

Pertinent Question

"John," she said, after dinner. "Is the drinking water at your office flavored with birch?"

The Rev. J. Birch Reynolds, rector of Carey with Holywell and Aunby, South Lincolnshire, is probably one of the best known clergymen in the country. He has been the incumbent for sixty-six years and his life has been a record of service.

Church Bells in Mexico.

There have been three great bells of the United States in Mexico. In 1812, in 1841 and in 1885, which is used at the present day by the acrobats as an advertisement to their acrobatic feats.

Dangerous Fog Banks.

Submarine sounding signals give warning to vessels ten miles distant of the danger of fog banks in the river, Uruguay, where dense fogs are frequent.

Canada's Fur Bearing Animals.

Old trappers in Canada declare that good seasons for fur bearing animals came in 1927. The fur crop is dependent upon the crop of rabbits. The great hunting ground of one year may be worthless the next because of a dearth of rabbits upon which fur bearing animals feed.

The Tandil Rocking Stone.

The Tandil rocking stone, near Buenos Aires weighs 270 tons and is so evenly balanced that it rocks in the wind, yet it is so firm that 1,000 horses pulling together could not displace it.

Thermometers.

A meteorological thermometer will not register a temperature below 28 below zero, while a spirit thermometer will measure down to 50 below.

Legislative "Riders."

A rider, in legislative parlance, is an additional section or clause annexed to a bill while it is passing through the legislature.

Submarines.

Electricity is the only motor power used in submarine boats.

The Roman Emperors.

The first fourteen Roman emperors all shared their faces clean. There is a portrait bust representing Nero with a beard, but it is not believed to be authentic.

Immigration Record Books.

The immigration for April this year beats all previous monthly records. The new-comers totalled 48,267, as compared with 24,227 for April, 1927, the increase is 99 per cent. Arrivals via ocean ports numbered 27,824 compared with 11,028 for April last year, an increase of 150 per cent; settlers from the United States for April this year numbered 20,445, against 12,609 for the corresponding month last year, increase of 62 per cent.

Weigh 'Em First.

Mr. E. E. Weldon, of Winsted, Connecticut, has invented a device by which fishermen can weigh fish in the water before they have landed them, and can thus tell the weight of fish that escape after being hooked but he's a poor sort of fisherman who hasn't always been able to do that.

The Fruit Crop has Failed.

Exclaiming the apprehensive person. "Yes," replied the gloomy broker, "but what's the use of trying to be a prophet when you're a failure?"

—Washington Star.

Knock—Weighted in his own balance he probably weighs a ton on ordinary stock scales he would weigh about 110 pounds, and in the estimation of his neighbors he might possibly weigh about eight ounces."

Dr. Morseville—Why, a little boy like you smoking! Don't you know that it's injurious to your constitution? "I don't know, I ain't got no constitution! Why, I ain't old enough to vote yet."

Extract from a young lady's letter to a friend: "Last night I lay in a gondola in the Grand Canal, drinking it all in, and I don't seem, so full before."

—Lippincott.

Girl from Country—Don't see what the hell of a place you got. There isn't a single thing I know how to do. Employment Agent—Very simple. You got to be a maid of all work.—Merrill's Bluff.

W. N. U., No. 800.

The Bank van Leening.

The Dutch embassy of Amsterdam, known as Bank van Leening, is under the control of the municipality and is one of the oldest in the country. Up to 1016 the business was leased by the city to a private company, but as it refused to reduce its interest on pawned articles the city took over the business and has managed it ever since.

The Fleur-de-lis.

France is the only country which still uses a fleur-de-lis as its national heraldry. But the fleur-de-lis, or three lilies, is so different from most flowers that it does not seem out of place on the national coat of arms.

Homing Pigeons.

The average speed of a homing pigeon in calm weather is 1,250 yards a minute. With a strong wind in the direction of flight some pigeons have made 1,500 yards, or considerably more than a mile a minute.

Must Get Permission.

One of the bylaws of a cottage hospital in Wales reads thus: "No patient shall curse or swear or use any indecent or abusive language, nor shall play at cards or dice, nor smoke while in the infirmary without the authority of the medical officer and at certain hours."

A Coffee Test.

Pure ground coffee will not deteriorate cold water until it has been soaked for some time, while the addition of chicory as an adulterant will immediately impart a brownish hue.

Paper of the Ancients.

The interior bark of trees was formerly used to write upon, and its Latin name (bark) was used to intimate that its use was as ancient as the art of writing itself. In one respect the bark was superior to the leaf. It could be rolled into a volume, while the leaf would crack if subjected to such a process.

United States Seals.

There have been three great seals of the United States since 1812, a second in 1841 and that of 1885, which is used at the present day by the acrobats as an advertisement to their acrobatic feats.

Church Bells in Mexico.

There have been three great bells of the United States in Mexico. In 1812, in 1841 and in 1885, which is used at the present day by the acrobats as an advertisement to their acrobatic feats.

Dangerous Fog Banks.

Submarine sounding signals give warning to vessels ten miles distant of the danger of fog banks in the river, Uruguay, where dense fogs are frequent.

Canada's Fur Bearing Animals.

Old trappers in Canada declare that good seasons for fur bearing animals came in 1927. The fur crop is dependent upon the crop of rabbits. The great hunting ground of one year may be worthless the next because of a dearth of rabbits upon which fur bearing animals feed.

The Tandil Rocking Stone.

The Tandil rocking stone, near Buenos Aires weighs 270 tons and is so evenly balanced that it rocks in the wind, yet it is so firm that 1,000 horses pulling together could not displace it.

Thermometers.

A meteorological thermometer will not register a temperature below 28 below zero, while a spirit thermometer will measure down to 50 below.

Legislative "Riders."

A rider, in legislative parlance, is an additional section or clause annexed to a bill while it is passing through the legislature.

Submarines.

Electricity is the only motor power used in submarine boats.

The Roman Emperors.

The first fourteen Roman emperors all shared their faces clean. There is a portrait bust representing Nero with a beard, but it is not believed to be authentic.

Immigration Record Books.

The immigration for April this year beats all previous monthly records. The new-comers totalled 48,267, as compared with 24,227 for April, 1927, the increase is 99 per cent. Arrivals via ocean ports numbered 27,824 compared with 11,028 for April last year, an increase of 150 per cent; settlers from the United States for April this year numbered 20,445, against 12,609 for the corresponding month last year, increase of 62 per cent.

Weigh 'Em First.

Mr. E. E. Weldon, of Winsted, Connecticut, has invented a device by which fishermen can weigh fish in the water before they have landed them, and can thus tell the weight of fish that escape after being hooked but he's a poor sort of fisherman who hasn't always been able to do that.

The Fruit Crop has Failed.

Exclaiming the apprehensive person. "Yes," replied the gloomy broker, "but what's the use of trying to be a prophet when you're a failure?"

—Washington Star.

Knock—Weighted in his own balance he probably weighs a ton on ordinary stock scales he would weigh about 110 pounds, and in the estimation of his neighbors he might possibly weigh about eight ounces."

Dr. Morseville—Why, a little boy like you smoking! Don't you know that it's injurious to your constitution? "I don't know, I ain't got no constitution! Why, I ain't old enough to vote yet."

Extract from a young lady's letter to a friend: "Last night I lay in a gondola in the Grand Canal, drinking it all in, and I don't seem, so full before."

—Lippincott.

Girl from Country—Don't see what the hell of a place you got. There isn't a single thing I know how to do. Employment Agent—Very simple. You got to be a maid of all work.—Merrill's Bluff.

W. N. U., No. 800.

The Doctor's Answers

By Dr. Lewis Baker.

The questions answered below are general in character; the symptoms or diseases are given and the answers will apply to any case of similar nature. Those wishing further a vice free, may address Dr. Lewis Baker, College-Building, Dayton, Ohio, enclosing a self-addressed envelope. It is impossible to obtain any of the drugs mentioned of your regular druggist, go to some prominent large retail drug store which is sure to be well stocked.

Maud—I am glad to know the prescription cured you so quickly. Yes, I can give a prescription which will increase your weight from one to three pounds a week. It is not so expensive for it improves the health, weight and strength marvellously. Keep up the treatment until your weight is satisfactory. Syrup hypophosphites comp. 3 oz., essence of papain 8 oz., tincture cadomene comp. 2 oz. (not cadomene) and comp. essence cardiol 1 oz. Mix, and take a teaspoonful before and after meals. This is a powerful tonic, too, for it contains iron and is a powerful tonic for the blood.

One of the bylaws of a cottage hospital in Wales reads thus: "No patient shall curse or swear or use any indecent or abusive language, nor shall play at cards or dice, nor smoke while in the infirmary without the authority of the medical officer and at certain hours."

A Coffee Test.

Pure ground coffee will not deteriorate cold water until it has been soaked for some time, while the addition of chicory as an adulterant will immediately impart a brownish hue.

Paper of the Ancients.

The interior bark of trees was formerly used to write upon, and its Latin name (bark) was used to intimate that its use was as ancient as the art of writing itself. In one respect the bark was superior to the leaf. It could be rolled into a volume, while the leaf would crack if subjected to such a process.

United States Seals.

There have been three great seals of the United States since 1812, a second in 1841 and that of 1885, which is used at the present day by the acrobats as an advertisement to their acrobatic feats.

Church Bells in Mexico.

There have been three great bells of the United States in Mexico. In 1812, in 1841 and in 1885, which is used at the present day by the acrobats as an advertisement to their acrobatic feats.

Dangerous Fog Banks.

Submarine sounding signals give warning to vessels ten miles distant of the danger of fog banks in the river, Uruguay, where dense fogs are frequent.

Canada's Fur Bearing Animals.

Old trappers in Canada declare that good seasons for fur bearing animals came in 1927. The fur crop is dependent upon the crop of rabbits. The great hunting ground of one year may be worthless the next because of a dearth of rabbits upon which fur bearing animals feed.

The Tandil Rocking Stone.

The Tandil rocking stone, near Buenos Aires weighs 270 tons and is so evenly balanced that it rocks in the wind, yet it is so firm that 1,000 horses pulling together could not displace it.

Thermometers.

A meteorological thermometer will not register a temperature below 28 below zero, while a spirit thermometer will measure down to 50 below.

Legislative "Riders."

A rider, in legislative parlance, is an additional section or clause annexed to a bill while it is passing through the legislature.

Submarines.

Electricity is the only motor power used in submarine boats.

The Roman Emperors.

The first fourteen Roman emperors all shared their faces clean. There is a portrait bust representing Nero with a beard, but it is not believed to be authentic.

Immigration Record Books.

The immigration for April this year beats all previous monthly records. The new-comers totalled 48,267, as compared with 24,227 for April, 1927, the increase is 99 per cent. Arrivals via ocean ports numbered 27,824 compared with 11,028 for April last year, an increase of 150 per cent; settlers from the United States for April this year numbered 20,445, against 12,609 for the corresponding month last year, increase of 62 per cent.

Weigh 'Em First.

Mr. E. E. Weldon, of Winsted, Connecticut, has invented a device by which fishermen can weigh fish in the water before they have landed them, and can thus tell the weight of fish that escape after being hooked but he's a poor sort of fisherman who hasn't always been able to do that.

The Fruit Crop has Failed.

Exclaiming the apprehensive person. "Yes," replied the gloomy broker, "but what's the use of trying to be a prophet when you're a failure?"

—Washington Star.

GAETZ & GAETZ

LEASE EXPIRING SALE

All Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes and Notions must be SLAUGHTERED!

Lease Expires in a Few Months All Goods Must Be Sold.
Prices will be hammered to Rock Bottom and Smashed.
Don't Miss the chance of a lifetime. Opportunity calls.
ACT NOW. TERMS - SPOT CASH.

Men's Canvas Shoes and Oxfords

Oxfords	-	-	-	former price	$2.25
Now	-	-	-		1.60
Shoes, former price	-	-	-		3.00
Now	-	-	-		1.60

Men's Straw Hats

Former Price	-	30	75	1.00	1.50
Now	-	20	40	65	95

Boys' Linen Wash Suits

In splendid goods and cheap at former price

Former price	-	75	1.00	1.25	1.50	2.25
Now	-	55	75	95	1.15	1.50

Men's Linen Collars

All styles and leading makes.
Former price 20c, now 2 for 25c.

Men's Sweaters

A FINE ASSORTMENT.
FANCY AND PLAIN COLORS.

Just the thing for work or play.

Former Price	-	-	-	$1.75	$2.00
Now	-	-	-	1.00	1.25

Boys' Sweaters

Former Price	-	-	-	-	65c
Now	-	-	-	-	35c

Men's Cotton Work Gloves

Former Price	-	-	-	3 prs. for 25c
Now	-	-	-	4 prs. for 25c

Mens' Leather Work Gloves

Former Price	-	-	-	1.25	1.50
Now	-	-	-	.95	1.15

MEN'S WORK SHIRTS

A wide range tasty patterns. Duck Sateen, Flannel, etc. To see those shirts is to realize how cheap they are.

Former Price	-	-	-	.75	.85	1.00	1.25
Now	-	-	-	.55	.65	.80	1.00

NEGLIGEE SHIRTS

Cuffs attached. Without collars. Lovely colors. Goods with that classy look.

Former Price	-	-	-	$1.00	1.25	1.50	1.75
Now	-	-	-	.75	.95	1.10	1.35

4000 Yards

of Prints, Zephyrs, Dress Muslins, Flannelettes, Wrapperettes and Art Muslins

Splendid materials in beautiful patterns. These goods at prices quoted will put money into your pocket.

PRINTS	-	-	-	Former price	15c
Now	-	-	-		10c

DRESS MUSLINS, former price	12½, 15, 17½, 20c.
Now your choice per yard	10c

ZEPHYRS, former price	-	-	-	15c.
Now	-	-	-	10c

FLANNELETTES, former price	-	-	-	12½ and 15c.
Now per yard	-	-	-	10c

MEN'S SUITS, Assorted Patterns

SPLENDID VALUES AT OLD PRICE.

Former Price	-	-	-	$12.00	15.00	17.50
Now	-	-	-	8.00	10.00	12.00

MEN'S SHOES, Latest Styles

THESE PRICES WILL MAKE YOU GLAD.

Former Price	-	-	-	3.50	5.00	5.50
Now	-	-	-	2.50	3.75	4.25

Women's Cotton Vests

Cheap at our usual selling price.

Former price	-	-	-	-	10c
Now 3 for	-	-	-	-	25c
Former price	-	-	-	-	15c
Now 2 for	-	-	-	-	25c
Former price	-	-	-	-	25c
Now	-	-	-	-	20
Former price	-	-	-	-	50c
Now	-	-	-	-	35c

Ladies' White Canvas Oxfords

Nothing else so cool and nice for summer

Former price	-	-	-	$2.00, 2.25
Now your choice	-	-	-	1.45

Misses' White Canvas Oxfords

Former price	-	-	-	1.50
Now	-	-	-	1.20

Children's White Canvas Oxfords

Former price	-	-	-	1.50
Now	-	-	-	95c

Children's Straw Sailor Hats

Former price	-	-	-	25	35	50
Now	-	-	-	15	20	25

Children's Straw Sailor Hats

Former price	-	-	-	75	85
Now you	-	-	-	50c	50c
Former price	-	-	-	1.25	1.50
Now your choice	-	-	-	75c	75c

Ladies' Lawn Waists, Beautiful Designs

Former Price	-	-	-	$1.75
Now	-	-	-	1.15

Ladies' Sateen Skirts, A Wide Range

These are Fine Values

Former Price	-	-	-	$2.50	3.50
Now	-	-	-	1.75	2.50

LADIES' LISLE THREAD GLOVES,

White, Black and Colored.

Former Price	-	-	-	.25	.35	.65
Now	-	-	-	.20	.25	.40

This is the biggest and most complete stock of Dry Goods ever offered at Slaughter Prices in Red Deer. Watch for the BLUE TICKET WITH RED PRICE FIGURES on all goods.

GAETZ & GAETZ

GENERAL MERCHANTS.

